Appreciation

First and foremost, we appreciate our hardworking team that has made the third edition of the Spark Magazine published! It is not easy as others may assume. We also appreciate all those companies that have recognized us as a magazine. We deeply appreciate Gatjisto, our guest for sharing their story with us. It means a lot and it is appreciated. We appreciate the Swazi Fest Writers Awards team for considering us a viable nominee in the awards. We appreciate each one of you who voted for us and allowed us to claim the prize, we know that this is not all and we are challenged to live up to this award. As you read the third edition keep it in your mind mind that we are striving for the excellency and want you to enjoy each page. Grab your self a copy and support by reading each word and sentence because it is our gift to you!
